Message from the Acting Chief Electoral Officer

This annual report compares the results of Elections BC's activities during the 2010/11 fiscal year to the 2010/11 – 2012/13 Service Plan.

This period in the electoral business cycle is typically dedicated to review and service delivery improvements; however, the 2010/11 fiscal year has instead been focused on preparing for and delivering a variety of different electoral events.

During the 12-month period covered by this report, Elections BC administered and conducted verification of the first successful initiative petition in British Columbia's history. As a result of the HST initiative petition, preparations began for the province's first initiative vote; in March 2011, it was announced that this would be replaced with a mail-based referendum to be conducted between June and August 2011. To support event preparations, the staff conducted a province-wide recruitment campaign and hired 85 District Electoral Officers and 91 Deputy District Electoral Officers, holding introductory training for these local managers in Victoria in March 2011.

Elections BC received applications and registered canvassers for four recall petitions in 2010/11: Oak Bay-Gordon Head, Comox Valley, Kamloops-North Thompson and Maple Ridge-Mission. The Oak Bay-Gordon Head and Comox Valley petitions were submitted with insufficient signatures and did not require verification; submission deadlines for the other two petitions occurred in the next fiscal year.

While much of 2010/11 was event-driven, the office also completed work on a variety of other priorities, including the maintenance of critical information systems and ongoing work on the quality of the voters list. The Electoral Information System (EIS) renovation project began, residential address synchronization between EIS and the Integrated Digital Electoral Atlas (INDEA) was completed and a project was begun to replace INDEA with a new Electoral Geography System which is intended to establish Elections BC as a leader in electoral management while pruning costs. In support of inter-jurisdictional collaboration and learning, in July 2010, Elections BC hosted the annual Conference of Canadian Election Officials, in which Chief Electoral Officers and their senior staff met in Victoria to discuss common issues and shared projects in Canadian electoral administration.

Over the past year, Elections BC's established planning culture has enabled the office to deliver multiple events efficiently, effectively and economically, while maintaining readiness for future events in a climate of considerable uncertainty. I am especially honoured to have presided over Elections BC during this demanding time.

Craig James
Acting Chief Electoral Officer

ORGANIZATION CHART

In 2010/11 Elections BC was structured as follows:

Report on performance

Elections BC's four corporate goals serve as the basis upon which organizational performance is measured.

The four goals are:

1. Ensure ongoing support and enhancement of the electoral process.
2. Ensure effective and efficient administration of electoral events.
3. Provide an inclusive and accessible electoral process.
4. Be a learning organization that develops and shares best practices.

These goals, which are strategically aligned with the organization's vision and mission, reflect the four key performance areas in which Elections BC must be successful to effectively deliver its mandate. In 2010/11, Elections BC established objectives and conducted projects and activities to achieve these goals for the organization concurrent with implementing lessons learned from the 2009/10 electoral events, as well as any on-demand events. Elections BC's ability to fully implement those strategies and lessons learned was limited by the operational requirements of delivering multiple on-demand events. Elections BC's performance in achieving these goals is assessed against performance measures established for each goal.

GOAL 1: ENSURE ONGOING SUPPORT AND ENHANCEMENT OF THE ELECTORAL PROCESS

Maintaining organizational and systems readiness for scheduled or on-demand events requires cross-program coordination and integration throughout the business and financial cycle. Keeping the electoral and other information systems up to date, maintaining the policy and legislative framework, providing ongoing investments in voter registration and recruiting appropriately skilled staff are critical to the success of Elections BC.

Objectives:

Elections BC's 2010/11 objectives were to:

- 1.1 Ensure the ongoing functioning of critical information systems.
- 1.2 Maintain a sound infrastructure that meets our organizational needs.
- 1.3 Ensure efficient and effective management of the voters list, address data and electoral geography.

Projects:

During 2010/11, Elections BC commenced or continued the following projects and activities in support of these objectives:

- Electoral Information System (EIS) slow renovation (part 1)
- EIS-Integrated Digital Electoral Atlas (INDEA) address synchronization
- Implemented EIS releases
- Electoral Geography System (INDEA evolution)
- Financial Reports and Political Contributions (FRPC) system enhancement
- Adopted Digital Road Atlas 2 (DRA2) road network
- ICBC batch processing improvements
- Voters list non-residential address review
- CEO transition documentation

Key performance measure for Goal 1 - Elections BC will maintain a high-quality voters list measured through coverage, currency and net currency¹

Performance Measure	2010/11 Target	2010/11 Actual
Coverage	91%	93.5%
Currency	83%	85.5%
Net currency	76%	79.9%

Thanks in part to the outreach efforts of Elections BC staff to actively encourage compliance, 98.6% of electoral finance clients for the Oak Bay-Gordon Head Recall Petition, the 2010 BC Refed Party Leadership Contest, the HST Initiative Petition and registered political parties and constituency associations filed their financing reports as required by legislation.

Key performance measure for Goal 1 - Elections BC will measure the compliance of electoral finance clients in meeting filing requirements

Performance Measure	2010/11 Target	2010/11 Actual
Filing compliance ratio	98%	98.6%

GOAL 3: PROVIDE AN INCLUSIVE AND ACCESSIBLE ELECTORAL PROCESS

This goal recognizes the need for the province's electoral processes to be inclusive and accessible for all British Columbia's voters. Ensuring the organization makes information and services available that meet voters' needs is fundamental to the success of Elections BC and the province's democracy.

Objectives:

Elections BC's 2010/11 objective was to:

- 3.1 Provide high-quality services to clients in a manner that is responsive to their needs.

Projects:

During 2010/11, Elections BC commenced or continued the following projects and activities in support of these objectives:

- Online fillable recall and initiative forms

In 2010/11, Elections BC was unable to conduct its planned client survey due to significant operational and on-demand event-related requirements. Financial report

The Select Standing Committee on Finance and Government Services has responsibility for considering and making recommendations on the budgets of Elections BC.

During the budget development process every fall, the Committee meets with each of the Officers of the Legislature to review their upcoming budget requirements and service plans. The Acting Chief Electoral Officer, Assistant Chief Electoral Officer (Funding and Disclosure), Assistant Chief Electoral Officer (Electoral Operations) and Director of Information Technology met with the Committee on November 23, 2010. Elections BC provided the Committee with a comprehensive review of Election BC's financial results for the previous fiscal year and a budget proposal for fiscal years 2011/12 to 2013/14. The proposal detailed the budget requirements for ongoing operations, event preparations for the 2013 General Election and the province-wide door-to-door enumeration required by the Election Act, and the conduct of the 2011 Initiative Vote. (It should be noted that the initiative vote has since been cancelled and replaced by the HST Referendum conducted during the summer of 2011.) The budget proposal was supplemented by a Leasehold Accommodation Proposal which provided detailed information about a recommended office move for Elections BC.

In its report of December 8, 2010, the Committee recommended that Elections BC's ongoing (non-event) operating budget for fiscal year 2011/12 be $8,134,000 and that for financial planning purposes, the ongoing budget for fiscal years 2012/13 and 2013/14 also be set at $8,134,000.

The Committee also approved the Leasehold Accommodation Proposal and during the remainder of fiscal 2010/11 Elections BC prepared for an office move.

The 2010/11 operating budget and results shown on the next page include the operating costs incurred to administer the HST Initiative Petition and several recall petitions during fiscal 2010/11.
